Approach of CARAM

- PARTNERSHIPS WITH COMMUNITY BASED FORMATION AND SOCIAL MOVEMENTS: We focus on building partnerships with groups/ individuals directly involved in the struggle of the dispossessed communities. We may choose to work directly, through our direct initiatives of the poor people.
- LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT: We focus on Leadership development and building active agents of change are key areas. We also design leadership development training modules and the pedagogy for cadre building.
- STRATEGIC ENGAGEMENT WITH THE STATE: We also work with the State to generate alternatives and policies through joint action based on the principles of Cooperate, where you can resist where you must.
- ENGAGING WITH YOUTH AND YOUTH-LED ORGANISATIONS: We engage and work with students unions and youth clubs with shared values in building opinions on critical issues and invite them to join as members, nurture their potential to be active leaders in a social transformation process.
- BUILDING KNOWLEDGE PARTNERSHIPS: We focus on striving to evolve as a knowledge activist organisation with decentralized yet connected knowledge hubs which will contribute to contemporary social movements and struggles by conducting research, documentation, bringing out regular policy briefs and by planning and designing campaigns.
- HUMANITARIAN RESPONSE FOR PEOPLE AFFECTED BY NATURAL AND HUMAN MADE DISASTERS: India is one of the most disaster prone countries of the world. CARAM (Centre for Advanced Research on Alternative Medicine) organization works with affected people from the most excluded and vulnerable communities and remote areas that are left out from the mainstream relief efforts. Women and children are at the core of our humanitarian work.
